

CITY NEWS

Miss Mable Vaughan left Monday for Denver and Colorado Springs, Colo., to spend the summer.

Mrs. Blanche O. Watts entertained last Sunday at dinner in honor of Mrs. A. G. Kimbrough of Denver, Colo.

Say boy, if you want a nice, cool, satisfying drink, try the delicious ROOT BEER at McCrary's, 1610 East 18th Street.

Mrs. Sarah Thompson, 911 Highland avenue, has been very ill for the past two weeks. She is somewhat better at this time.

Mr. and Mrs. Hill of Ft. Worth, Texas, are visiting Mrs. R. A. Jones, 1828 East Ninth street. They will be here for several days.

Mrs. Allie Smith of Toledo, Ohio, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. W. P. Swan, 1514 East Seventeenth street, also her mother and sisters.

Mrs. Simpson of Minneapolis, Minnesota, enroute from New Mexico, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Moore, 1701 Tracy avenue, last Wednesday.

Miss Vera Patton of 2304 Highland avenue, left Tuesday morning for Chicago, Ill. Enroute she will spend a few days in Davenport, Ia.

Miss Zenobia Keith, 2112 Woodland avenue, has returned home after a tour of nine months of Western Canada with the Buckner Concert Company.

Miss Margaret Idelett, who is spending a month with relatives and friends in Fort Worth and Dallas, Texas, writes that she is having a delightful time.

Prof. John Jackson, former president of Lincoln Institute, died at Columbus, Ohio, Thursday morning. He is an uncle of Prof. R. G. Jackson, Western University.

Mrs. McCulley, 1325 Brooklyn avenue, entertained last Monday with a 5 o'clock dinner in honor of Bishop N. C. Cleaves of the C. M. E. Church and Rev. N. G. Walker, pastor of Jamison Temple.

Our old friend Billy McClain of Tulsa, Okla., is in the city visiting his friends and attending to some business matters. Billy says all other former Kansas Cityans, "It's good to be here."

Sir John Young of Pine Bluff, Ark., was in the city last Saturday to accompany home the body of Sir John Warling, who died at Phoenix, Ariz. While here he was guest of Mrs. F. A. Cook, 1232 Vine street.

Dr. and Mrs. Strawn motored from St. Joseph, Mo., last Sunday. They attended the dedicatory exercises at the Paseo Bathhouse and spent the remainder of the day as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Banks.

Mrs. Julia Colley, adopted daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Richardson, 912 Michigan avenue, died June 21. Funeral services will be held at Pleasant Green Baptist Church Tuesday at 2 p. m. Rev. Booker, the pastor, will officiate.

Among our callers last week was J. W. Wright, an old veteran from the Soldiers' Home, Leavenworth, Kansas, who renewed his subscription. Although 79 years of age, Comrade Wright is active as a boy and an entertaining talker.

Messrs. Powell and Taylor, proprietors of the summer garden, at 2001 Woodland avenue, are to be commended for their wisdom in selecting the ideal location. What they have lacked in making the social garden nature has contributed to a wonderful degree.

The elaborate marriage of Rev. George H. Devlin and Mrs. Melissa Mott was solemnized Wednesday evening, June 18, at the Garrison Square, Rev. W. H. Webb officiating. The bridal party toured some of the city, then to the church at Fifth and Lydia, where Rev. Devlin, the pastor, was served in courses to a lovely wedding dinner. He received many beautiful presents from the Young Ministers' Alliance. The president, Rev. H. W. Webb, presented to them $5 in money.

Naturally we are inclined to look for the best service at the Morris Cafe, under the management of Mr. M. M. Morris, 1720 East 18th Street. We make this assertion because Mr. Morris acquired the habit of giving the best service during his employment with the Rock Island, the Pennsylvania, Marquette and the Michigan Central Railroads, and the Northern Steamship Lines. Any business man possessing such varied experiences and recommendations is entitled to the patronage of an obliging people.

Mr. McCrary and Mr. Mills were defeated Saturday by Col. Rife and Mr. James Harris in two straight sets. Scores were 165 to 152 and 176 to 158, with Col. Rife making 4 spares in one game and Mr. Harris also shooting in good form. Mr. Edgar Crawford defeated Mr. Theo. Ward in two straight sets last Saturday. The contest between Mr. Anderson and Mr. McCrary will be played Monday evening. Mr. McCrary offers to challenge any player in Kansas City, 100 no count.

Mrs. J. H. Williams, 1325 Michigan is visiting in Columbia Mo.

That Root Beer at Mac's, 1610 East 18th Street, hits the spot. Only 5 cents, too.

Miss Estelle R. Williams, 1325 Michigan, leaves Saturday evening for Chicago, Ill., to spend her vacation.

Hon. Fred L. Douglass of Tulsa, Okla., a former Kansas Cityan, visited friends and transacted business in the city this week. Mr. Douglass was recently elected member of the School Board in that city and is a prominent figure in the political life of that city.

Miss Ruth Bell who completed the Nurses' course in Freedmen's Hospital, Washington, D. C., spent the week-end the guest of her aunt, Mrs. H. G. Dwiglins, Kansas City, Kansas. Miss Bell was called to St. Joseph, Mo., to nurse Mrs. E. A. Walker of Kansas City, Mo., who is quite ill in that city.

Miss Mae White, a member of the class of '09 and a teacher at Wiley University, Marshall, Texas, passed through the city enroute to Oberlin, Ohio, where she will continue the study of music at the Conservatory during the summer season. While here she was the guest of her cousin, Mrs. Lydia E. Simpson.

The Houston Observer and the Texas Freeman edited by that veteran of the fraternity, C. N. Love, have been consolidated under the management of Brothers Love and Campbell. A Gilmore and it is predicted by those who know that the New Freeman Observer will be the greatest newspaper power of the Southwest.

The District Conference and Sunday School Convention of the South-west Missouri Conference met in Lexington, Mo., this week and a most profitable and delightful session was held. Quite a few persons from here were in attendance among whom were: Rev. W. H. Thomas, Editor N. C. Crews of the Sun, Mrs. R. B. Green. A full account will be published next week.

Miss A. D. Vinson, 217 East Thirty-seventh street, was hostess at a very pretty dinner party Wednesday evening. The color scheme of green and lavender was carried out very artistically. A beautiful basket of spring flowers formed the centerpiece. The following menu was served:

Pineapple Cocktail.
Pear Salad and Wafers.
Charlotte Ruse.
Bon Bons, After Dinner Mints.
The guests were: Misses Nellie Ray, Lexington, Mo.; Nannie Goins, Jefferson City; Mayme Logan, Anna Goff and Mrs. Ernest Chinn. Miss Vinson is one of the most charming hostesses of the younger set.

CARD OF THANKS.
I desire to express my sincere thanks and appreciation to the many friends for the beautiful flowers and expressions of love and sympathy during my recent illness at Wheatley-Provident Hospital.
These acts of kindness will ever be a pleasant and loving memory to me. For Dr. Howard M. Smith, Dr. E. E. Perry, nurses and attendants of the hospital, I have nothing but overwhelming praise and gratitude for their care and treatment. May God's choicest blessing rest upon all.
Alice Grady.
